The Office of Secondary Educational Service Surin emphasizes the service by virtue and transparency as per the policy (Prime Minister General Prayut Chan-ocha) on September 12th, 2014, in the promotion of public administration with good governance and suppression of corruption and misconduct in the government sector, according to the Civil Service Ethics Code, BE 2552 (2009), the Manual for Compliance with the Office of the Basic Education Commission Announcement of the Office of the Basic Education Commission dated June 22nd, 2011 regarding the policy on transparency and verification in the operation of government agencies, the manual of integrity and assessment transparency of the Office of the National Anti-Corruption Commission (ONACC) and the Office of Public Sector Anti-Corruption Commission (PACC)

Rattanaburi school has studied and developed an action plan for the prevention and suppression of corruption following the policy of the Office of the Basic Education Commission for the year 2020 - 2023 (4 years), on promoting transparency, liability, moralities, virtues, ethics, culture in the organization and communication within the organization. Rattanaburi School believes that the conduct of government officials and all personnel in our affiliation must meet the needs of society and can be trusted by the public. We expected that all government officials behave with dignity while fulfilling their responsibilities.

On behalf of all level executives of Rattanaburi School, I intend to support my officials and staff of all departments morally and unambiguously. As the director of Rattanaburi School, I will execute the organization efficiently and effectively. Besides, I will protect the advantages of government and grant justice for people equally and fairly.

I confirm that Rattanaburi School will be the most relevant and ready-to-check governmental entity by following vision "Year 2027, Rattanaburi School to be a quality organization with international standard. Learners have the potential to be citizens of the world. Introduce Sufficiency Economy Philosophy to Sustainable Development.”

“ We also intend to develop communication skills for students and make them speak at least two languages. Moreover, we make them have thinking competency, creative productivity, local environment conservative and have morality and ethics as well as adhere to the sufficiency economy philosophy”

I intend to swear to all fellows of government officials who will execute organizations to protect and fight against all forms of corruption in government entities. With consciousness and responsibility, I will use all my wisdom and potential on my execution duties fairly and honestly. I swear that I am still conscious; knowing everything is right or wrong; knowing everything should be done or should be spared; for work without any damages but the most advantage. I have good governance in management and I stand against all forms of corruption. For all these reasons, it is for the most advantage of people and to do the good deed for our king.
